

SUCCESS OF GENOA CONFERENCE IS ASSURED

SAYS LLOYD GEORGE IN A STATEMENT TO PRESS OF THE WORLD

BOTH THE GERMAN AND RUSSIAN OBSTACLES WILL BE

CORNERSTONE OF EUROPEAN
PEACE AND RECONSTRUC-
TION HAS BEEN LAID

By HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Genoa, April 20.—The German delegation today declared flatly it would not annul or withdraw the commercial treaty signed with Russia at Rapallo on Easter Sunday.

Walter Rathenau, foreign minister, conferred with Minister Schanzer of Italy in an effort to frame the German official reply which announces this so that it would not disrupt the Genoa conference.

It was stated the reply would not be presented to the allies before evening.

Genoa, April 20.—"The success of the Genoa conference is assured," Premier Lloyd George declared today addressing the press of the world at San Giorgio Palace.

"The cornerstone of European peace and reconstruction has been laid," he said. "Both the Russian and German obstacles will be overcome," the premier declared. "They will probably be settled today."

Lloyd George announced the conference will take up consideration of an American pact of non-aggression. Nations will guarantee not to attack each other without lengthy consideration of their difficulties. The non-aggression pact previously suggested by Lloyd George would be for Europe what the four-power Pacific treaty signed at Washington is for the Pacific.

Referring to the Russo-German treaty signed at Rapallo, Lloyd George said: "We have reasons to believe that Germany will withdraw from this treaty. Had any other nation represented here at Genoa so signed behind our backs, it would have broken up the conference."

Lloyd George was most optimistic in his predictions. "We are overcoming all our difficulties," he repeated. "We are having the greatest success."

The premier declared his confidence that the "other difficulty" regarding Russia would be removed with receipt of the Soviet reply today. The Russian delegation would deliver this note replying to the allied experts' proposals this afternoon, it was announced at the palace.

Lloyd George Talks to Press
Genoa, April 20.—Premier Lloyd George this afternoon addressed the press of the world on the crisis at Genoa.

The British premier summoned correspondents of papers from every country to the San Giorgio Palace, and spoke to them at 4 o'clock.

In closing his speech, the premier referred indirectly to the United States.

The League of Nations, he said, would never fully succeed until all nations of the world belong.

Russian Reply Conciliatory
London, April 20.—The Russian reply to the allied experts' proposal delivered this afternoon, was conciliatory in tone, according to a news agency dispatch from Genoa.

This reply concerned terms with which Russia was to recognize the Russian debt.

Commission Declines to Annul Pact
Paris, April 20.—The reparations commission appealed to by France to force annulment of the Russo-German treaty today refused to take action on the pact until officially requested to deal with it by the allied governments.

GIRL WIFE IS DEAD
BECAUSE HUSBAND
THREATENED DIVORCE

(By United Press.)

St. Paul, April 20.—Michael Mathias moaned in deepest agony today owing to "the biggest mistake of my life."

In an undertaker's room the body of his girl wife was being prepared for burial. She set herself afire in a fit of gloom Monday, and died last night. Mathias had shown her a lawyer's receipt for $50 saying he was ready to secure a divorce.

His action followed weeks of strife over the fact that no baby came to brighten the home. He told her that was the reason he was getting a divorce.

When he left the house she poured kerosene over her clothing and a moment later ran screaming into the street, fatally burned.

"I was crazy," said Mathias.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK
BRIGHTEST IN YEARSAGRICULTURAL PROSPECTS SHOW MARKED IMPROVEMENT IN LAST FEW WEEKS

Washington, April 20.—The nation is moving toward an era of prosperous business and agricultural conditions, officials in close touch with the business and financial life of the country now believe.

A marked change for the better has occurred with the last few weeks, these officials say. Never since the post-war industrial depression began has business and agricultural prospects held the possibilities it does now as a result of recent developments.

Officials point to these developments as evidence of returning prosperity:

Five issues of Liberty Bonds have reached par, having climbed up from an average of about 85, two years ago.

Money and interest rates have been lowered materially, as evidence by the oversubscription of the debt certificates issued at a 3 per cent interest rate, the lowest government borrowing rate since the early days of the war.

Business conditions throughout the country, particularly in the agricultural are much better than months ago.

Repayment of loans to the war finance corporation now virtually equal disbursements for the first time since the depression was most acute.

Exports for March showed an increase over February.

Farmers who are fattening hogs and cattle are somewhat ahead in the normal procession.

The buying power of the farmers has been restricted by the widespread attitude of economy which is manifest everywhere.

The farmers are working to create cheap crops and pay off their debts.

There is a distinct movement of homeseekers toward the southwest though passenger travel on railways has materially decreased owing to a desire for economy. This economy movement has led the farmers to buy only what is necessary and the result will be the cheapest crop in years.

WILL INVESTIGATE
JUDGE WHO REFUSED
MINERS CITIZENSHIP

(By United Press.)

Washington, April 20.—The house labor committee, now studying the coal strike situation, will investigate the alleged action of Federal Judge Charles P. Orr of Pittsburgh in denying citizenship papers to miners because they were on strike, Chairman Nolan said today.

Representatives of the United Mine Workers in Pennsylvania, or the individual miners who came under Orr's alleged ban, will appear before the committee Monday or Tuesday.

Nolan has publicly stated that if Judge Orr's alleged unfair action was born out by facts presented to the labor committee, he would not hesitate to introduce a resolution in the house asking Orr's impeachment.

MPLS. MAN KIDNAPS
ESTRANGED WIFE IN THRILLING MANNERGUN PLAY, WILD AUTO RACE WITH POLICE CHASE WERE STAGED IN MOVIE FASHION

(By United Press.)

Minneapolis, April 20.—Irving L. Stair, prominent society man and grain dealer, was sentenced to the workhouse for sixty days after a thrilling kidnapping of his estranged wife.

Mrs. Stair, a sister of Henry C. Flannery, assistant state attorney general, and daughter of the late Judge Henry C. Flannery, is seriously ill at her home because of the affair. Wild automobile races, gun play, threats of murder and suicide, and a wild chase by police, figure in the movie-like climax to six years of wedded life. A divorce will follow as an anti-climax, according to friends of Mrs. Stair.

Pending divorce hearings, Mrs. Stair secured an order restraining Stair from molesting her or visiting their child.

Monday night Stair carried his wife at the point of a gun down a ladder from her room, and placed her in a closed car. Then began a terrorizing ride to St. Cloud, during which she alleged Stair threatened to kill her and shoot himself. Still pressing the revolver against her side, Stair took her to a St. Cloud hotel. In the morning they breakfasted. When Stair left the room for a minute to telephone, Mrs. Stair called to a salesman to help. Startled, he did not comprehend.

Stair stepped out of the filling station. When he left the car, she ran. He overtook her, and a tussle ensued. Mrs. Stair grabbed the revolver and pointed it at him. He wrested it from her and ran.

Driving rapidly away, Stair left his wife disheveled in the road. A St. Cloud police gun squad then took up the pursuit. He was overtaken after a ten-mile chase, during which twenty shots were fired. Today Stair was sentenced to the workhouse for violation of the court restraining order.

Read was arrested in connection with a letter received by Mrs. Day demanding $2,000 to "forever forget what he saw" through the window of the Day home the morning Judge Day shot Beck, following an alleged attempt by the aviator on Mrs. Day's honor.

TWO FATALLY AND FIFTY
SLIGHTLY INJURED

(By United Press.)

Chicago, April 20.—One school girl killed, two persons probably fatally hurt, and fifty injured, was the toll of a "baby" cyclone which swept Chicago's loop district last night. The girl victim was Evelyn Jacobson, 8, who was struck by a piece of cornice. A sister, Raghilde, was struck by a brick, sustaining perhaps fatal injuries. Frank Brande, a saloon porter, was snatched from death by a pedestrian in rubber boots who broke Brande's contact with a falling trolley wire. The current had enveloped the porter's body in a blue flame.

Property damage will total thousands of dollars.

HUNDREDS REPORTED
KILLED BY EXPLOSION OF WAR MATERIALS

(By United Press.)

London, April 20.—A terrific explosion occurred today among war materials at Salonika, according to a news agency dispatch from Athens. Eighteen hundred soldiers were reported to have been buried among the ruins of the barracks. Hundreds of civilians in the vicinity have been killed, according to the report. Fire broke out, and panic ensued.

The explosion occurred at noon Wednesday. It was the dinner hour for the troops. The barracks in which they were eating collapsed, following the blast, and many were killed, according to the report.

One shell, hundreds of which flew in all directions following the explosion, burst after hitting a mainly children, are said to have been buried.

Part of the town where the explosion occurred is in ruins.

SWEEPING INQUIRY INTO COAL INDUSTRY ASKED

Washington, April 20.—The house labor committee which has been investigating the coal strike situation decided today to take up the subject tomorrow.

In place of his resolution for appointment of a commission to make an inquiry as to labor conditions and wages, Representative O. E. Bland (rep., Ind.) presented a bill to "establish conditions in the coal industry."

The commission, to be known as the coal investigating agency, would consist of 10 members, including the director of the geological survey, director of the bureau of mines, director of census and commissioner of labor statistics, with six members to be appointed by the president.

NAVAL BILL WITH
86,000 PERSONNEL
PASSED BY HOUSEPRESIDENT UPHOLD IN ACTION BY MARGIN OF 73 VOTES WITH NO
GREAT SHOUT AT FINISH

Washington, April 20.—By the margin of 73 votes the house tonight broke away from its own leadership, stood behind the president and passed the 1923 naval appropriation bill with an amendment fixing the enlisted personnel at 86,000. The vote on the McArthur-Vare amendment, the big point in dispute, and which increased the man force from 67,000 as provided in the bill, was 221 to 148, with two members answering present. Ninety republicans voted against the 86,000 amendment while 48 democrats supported it.

There was no great shout at the finish like that which filled the chamber a week ago when the same proposal was put through the house, sitting in committee of the whole. A bare hand-clap or two greeted the announcement by the speaker. The galleries, half deserted, made no attempt at a demonstration.

With the fighting section out of the way, the bill was put on its passage and went through, 279 to 78. As amended, the measure carried a total of $251,260,000 or $18,000,000 more than the total fixed by the appropriations committee which framed it. It now goes to the senate, with the charge by Chairman Kelley, of the naval appropriations sub-committee, that many millions will be added and which the house would have been asked to add, "had not the big navy men changed front at the last."

TIES AGAINST MINN. CO-OP.
CREAMERY ASSN.

(By United Press.)

St. Paul, April 20.—Governor Preus today sided with the Minnesota Cooperative Creameries association, and administered a rebuke to Chris Heen, state dairy and food commissioner.

He requested Heen to "cease adverse activities against the association" and said he would appreciate "friendly cooperation with them."

They were sent to Mr. Heen in a letter relative to charges presented against him March 10th by the association.

The association claimed Heen and J. P. McCarthy, his assistant, deliberately worked against the association, and refused to render any cooperation. The governor told Heen that "neither you nor your assistant used good judgment in your actions toward the cooperative association."

N. D. SENATORIAL
CANDIDATES WILL DIS-REGARD CONVENTION

(By United Press.)

Jamestown, N. D., April 20.—The two men who would have the best chance of securing the regular republican convention endorsement for United States senator, have let it be known that they would both run regardless of the convention's action.

They created the probability today that the convention will let the senatorial issue "ride," and make no endorsement. At the same time the situation was fraught with possibilities for A. M. Christianson, who might easily be a compromise candidate.

Senator J. P. McCumber, incumbent, and P. D. Norton, are the two who have decided they will seek the nomination regardless of the convention's action.

Nestos Endorsed

Jamestown, N. D., April 20.—Governor R. A. Nestos was unanimously endorsed for re-election by the regular republican convention here today on a rising vote.

J. E. Davies of Goodrich placed the governor's name in nomination, amid cheers.

The democratic convention named Charles Simon, of New England, their candidate for governor. He is now assistant attorney general. Both conventions were expected to adjourn at noon.

300 MORE NONUNION
MINERS ON STRIKE

Pittsburgh, April 20.—Supplementing a list of 129 non-union coal mines and coke plants in western Pennsylvania, issued by district headquarters here of the United Mine Workers, which officials said had been closed by union organizers, came reports from Somerset county last night that 300 non-union workers at Boswell had struck.

President John Brophy of District 2 stated that the day's reports indicated practically all of the miners at Boswell and Jenners were out. Additional strikes were reported from Holsopple, Keele Run and Dilltown.

McCUMBER OPENS
TARIFF BILL DEBATE

(By United Press.)

Washington, April 20.—The new tariff bill is a bridge across a commercial chasm between America and Europe, Senator McCumber of North Dakota said in a speech to the senate today, opening debate on the measure.

"The gulf separating the cost of products at home and abroad is now so deep and so wide that a tariff which would be sufficiently high to protect our markets against others of cheaper products, would amount to an embargo against all the rest of the world," said McCumber.

PHONE EXCHANGE DEFEATED;
CASUALTIES IN CITY LIGHT

(By United Press.)

Dublin, April 20.—Rebel assaults upon the Free State headquarters, the town hall, the telephone exchange, and upon the provisional government patrols in Dublin early today were beaten off after several exchanges of rifle firing.

Volleys were exchanged between rebel bands and rifle men in armed lorries filled with Free State troops at O'Connell bridge in the very center of the Irish capital. The car was riddled with bullets and four Free State troopers were wounded.

Free State headquarters in upper Merrion street were subjected to simultaneous attacks from front and rear. The city hall was attacked by mutineers, but little damage was done to the building, and no casualties in heavy exchange of rifle firing. The telephone exchange was the chief objective of the insurgents, but they found it heavily guarded by Free State troopers who beat them off with the loss of only one man wounded.

A police patrol in Grafton street was fired upon from the roofs. Caught in ambush, the patrol miraculously escaped without loss. Rebels from the barracks at Four Courts, captured a lorry carrying munitions.

The commission is studying agricultural problems.

Solitaire. Solitaire is a game played on a board invented with 33 or 37 hemispherical hollows, with the same number of balls or marbles. An unoccupied hollow is left by removing one ball, and the balls, or pieces, are then captured as in checkers. No moves are allowed in diagonal directions or over more than one space at a time. The trick is to leave a solitary ball in the center hole.

LYCEUM THEATRE "QUEEN OF SHEBA"

Performances Afternoon and Evening
Crowded Wednesday, Shown Last
Times This Evening

SPECIAL MUSIC WITH PICTURE
Six Great Chariots in a Mad Plunge
Around the Arena Provide Thrilling Race

The Lyceum entertained crowds at the three shows de luxe given afternoon and evening on Wednesday and which will be repeated Thursday. Special music was furnished for the magnificent spectacle, "The Queen of Sheba".

One of the most exciting scenes occurs in the mad chariot race, when six of these drawn by four horses each, career around the arena. An axle breaks, a chariot whirls to the ground, spilling the driver, and then right over rider and wreckage four horses and another chariot plunge on to victory.

Beautiful Betty Blythe takes the title role. As a motion picture producers claim it required 10,000 actors, 671 scenes, 500 camels and 500 horses to produce "The Queen of Sheba" spectacle.

SPECIAL REVIVAL MEETINGS

Are Being Held at the First M. E. Church by Rev. A. H. McKee, Supt. of the Duluth District

Special revival meetings are in progress at the First Methodist church with Rev. A. H. McKee, superintendent of the Duluth district preaching. Rev. Neftzgar who was to lead the singing was delayed on account of an operation on his throat and Mrs. R. E. Cody was secured to take his place until he arrives.

The meeting last night was well attended and was an inspiration. There seems to be a strong determination on the part of the church to make these meetings a real success. The men's club were there in good numbers. The Sunday school was well represented, the Juniors occupying one section, the camp fire girls in the choir and the young peoples department in the rear of the church.

Reverend McKee brought a strong and sane message from the lesson of the twelve spies. Ten of whom saw only the human side while the two saw only the divine aid and said "We are well able to go up and possess the land".

Meetings will be held each night at 7:30 o'clock. All are welcome.

LAKE OF BURNING OIL

Blaze Shoots Up Hundreds of Feet in "The Son of Wallingford" at New Park on May 1st

The following synopsis will serve to give an idea of the plot and character of the picture to be presented by the Business and Professional Woman's club at the New Park theatre May 1 and 2, this picture, "The Son of Wallingford," being the first of a series of four presentations for which club tickets are being sold by the members of the club.

George Randolph Chester, internationally known as an author and creator of the likeable vagabond, Get-Rich-Quick-Wallingford, took many months to transfer to celluloid the great story that he had been thinking about for years—every since he wrote the first Wallingford story and made the name of his tricky promoter a household word.

The human qualities in this pictured story hold. A simple love scene between Mary Curtis and Jimmy Wallingford demands as much attention as the magnificent pageant scene patterned after an old Indian durbar with its gaily caparisoned elephants and camels and thousands of costumed participants.

A Lake of Burning Oil

In addition to this there are big spectacular scenes on a lake of burning oil. These are the greatest fire scenes ever filmed. Ten tanks of oil were spread upon the specially constructed lake which cost over $20,000 to produce. The blaze shot up in whirlpools hundreds of feet in the air and twice the diameter of a man's waist. It burned for ten days steadily.

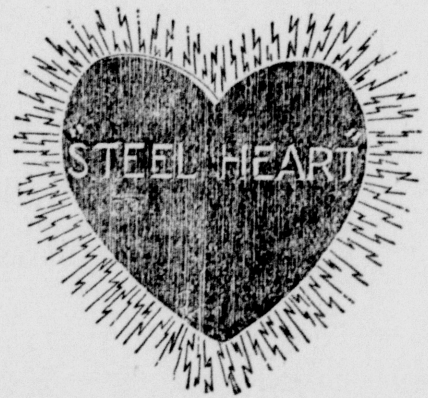

Selected with Care

Every character was selected with care and precision so that in the finished production every type would be faithfully portrayed and visualized as they have been in the original Wallingford stories. Priscilla Bonner was selected for the leading feminine role because she is the perfect type of the small town girl who is wooed and won by the son of the famous but notorious J. Rufus Wallingford. Miss Bonner's work is well-known, as she has played opposite Chas. Ray, Tom Moore, Jack Pickford and Will Rogers, usually in the role of a sweet, though coquettish, small town girl. Love, adventure, humor and big spectacular scenes are woven into a big photoplay filled with human interest.

Dorcas Society

The Dorcas Young Peoples society of the Swedish Bethany church will be entertained at the church on Friday evening, April 21st, by Mrs. John Stenberg and Mrs. John Erickson.

A good program is being arranged and a cordial invitation is extended members and friends to be present.

Northeast Brainerd to Have a Recreational Club

A meeting will be held Friday evening in the church parlor of the Peoples Congregational church, for the purpose of organizing and outlining a plan for summer recreation. If you are interested in lawn tennis, croquet, base ball, or horse shoe pitching, or any outside sports you are requested to be present at this meeting, to offer assistance, and suggest plans that will help the organization a profitable one to the community.

If you are not interested in playing the games but are interested in the right kind of amusement for the young people you are also invited to come and join with us in formulating plans. Friday evening at 8 o'clock, lunch will be served. J. E. Cadwell, pastor of Peoples church.

IMPORTERS AND CONSUMERS

AT THE special tariff convention held some weeks ago in Washington City under the auspices of the National Manufacturers' Association, a number of articles manufactured in Germany and Austria were exhibited showing the fearful disparity in production costs of those articles in their countries of origin and in the United States. Appended to each of the exhibits was a photostat copy of a sales slip issued by the department store selling the particular article showing the price at which it was sold to the American consumer.

Long lists of these articles, giving the cost in Germany and Austria to the importer and the retail selling price in the United States, have been published in Eastern papers. Three examples only are quoted here. For instance, a pair of scissors purchased in the German market for 14 cents (American money), was sold in a department store here for $3.00. A German knife with ornamental handle, a pair of scissors folding in, and a nail file, costing only 12 cents in Germany, was sold to the American purchaser for $8.50.

Two thermos bottles were placed side by side. The German bottle cost 17 marks, equal at that time to 8½ cents American money. The duty was 20 per cent (foreign valuation), or 1.7 cents. Adding freight and other expenses, the laid-down cost for the bottle here was 12.2 cents. These bottles were sold by a chain of subsidiary stores controlled by the importers at 98 cents, a profit of about 800 per cent. A comparative American bottle is put out at an average production cost of $1.01 and retails for $1.50. Under American valuation, with a duty rate of 60 per cent the landed cost of the German bottle would have still been below the American production cost.

The argument of the American manufacturers, farmers, workmen, and all who so strongly advocate the American valuation plan, is that to assess duties on such foreign values as these amounts to practically free trade, and no consumer is getting the benefit of these low prices paid by the importers, who exact profits of from 200 to 1,000 per cent when they sell over their counters.

U. S. FOREST FIRE PROTECTION

THE UNITED STATES Forest Service has established an office in Duluth to promote co-operation between the Federal government and the states of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan in forest fire protection.

Under the act of March 1, 1911, generally known as the Weeks law, funds were provided with which the Secretary of Agriculture, acting through the United States Forest Service, might co-operate with the various states in their fire protection work. The amount appropriated by Congress for this purpose has increased to a point where it is now a substantial addition to the states' funds, particularly in the states which do not yet make large appropriations of their own.

The location of an office in Duluth is an expression of interest which the United States Forest Service takes in all matters pertaining to forestry in the lake states, particularly in the prevention and suppression of forest fires.

IMMIGRATION HOLIDAY RECOMMENDED

MRS. LILLIAN RUSSELL MOORE, who recently made an inspection of conditions in France, England and Italy, under a commission from President Harding, has recommended an "immigration holiday" of from one to five years to the House Immigration Committee.

As a result of her trip, Mrs. Moore said, the conviction that "America should care for Americans first" has assumed first importance in her mind among all other phases of immigration problems.

LIBERTY BONDS ABOVE PAR

ALL ISSUES of Liberty Bonds, now selling at 99 or better, are declared by financiers to be on the verge of crossing par value, and thus fulfilling the campaign promise of President Harding that the Republican administration would do everything in its power to insure against loss those persons who practically loaned their funds to the government during the great war. Victory notes crossed par value several weeks ago and are now selling at premiums. Your Uncle Samuel's credit is good.

TO DIVERT ATTENTION

THE DEMOCRATIC opposition to Senator Newberry savors very much of a counter demonstration to divert attention from their own flagrant disfranchisement of the negro voters in the South, their open violation of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution, and their control of elections in the South through methods which would not be tolerated for a moment in the States of the North. Our Democratic friends are evidently putting out a smoke screen to hide their own infamous political methods.

THE LITTLE FALLS TRANSCRIPT says: "Democrats will tell you that the Republican administration is endeavoring to oust all officials appointed under the Wilson regime. Bringing the matter near home we might cite the fact that the late postmaster at Ft. Ripley, a Democrat, had received his reappointment just before the accident which caused his death."

WINTER wheat production this year is forecasted at 572,974,000 bushels by the Department of Agriculture in its first estimate of the season. There were 587,032,000 bushels produced last year, 610,597,000 in 1920, and the average of the preceding five years was 578,575,000.

SECRETARY HOOVER says the Department of Commerce has as yet noted no appreciable effect of the coal strike on business.

NECKSCARF FOR THE FLAPPER

The brilliantly colored neckscarf is one of the absolute necessities in the young lady's wardrobe. Her costume is not complete until she dons one of these fascinating and useful items—the brighter and more colorful, the better.

IN SNAPPY TOGS FOR SPORTS

Knickerbockers Favored for Skating, Golf or Riding; Both Chic and Exceedingly Comfortable.

To enjoy any sort of sports one must be dressed not only becomingly but appropriately. For the woman who likes skating, golf or riding there are garments both conservative and daring. Knickerbockers, until now considered the thing for horseback riding, have made a very successful reappearance on the links. They are both chic and exceedingly comfortable. A smart outfit which can be worn for hunting, skating or horseback riding is made of tan wool jersey.

The short, straight coat—military in cut, reminding one of the coat worn during the war by English officers—is lined in bright orange crepe de chine. It has a narrow collar ending in long, pointed revers passing under the belt and to the hem of the jacket.

Two huge pockets are lined with the same orange crepe de chine. A narrow belt of tan chambray fastens in front with a rather small metal. The sleeves are set in way up over the shoulders, long and as tight fitting as comfort allows.

With this knickerbocker worn, they are also patterned after those worn by English officers, and button way below the knee. The effect obtained by this ensemble is decidedly chic, becoming, as well as feminine.

To be worn with this outfit, the real sportswoman will choose a soft felt hat, not too large, so as not to blow off with the first puff of wind, and yet large enough to offer the needed protection to the eyes. For horseback riding it is very smart to replace the hat with an adorable little jockey cap made of material matching the costume and the peak in either black patent leather or suede kid. Whipcord riding togs also are very smart and have a goodly coterie of faithful admirers.

PEASANT BLOUSE FOR SPRING

Russian Type Prevails With Smocked Round Neckline; Rich Decorations Are Being Used.

The picturesqueness of the peasant blouse makes it again in favor this spring. Many of the blouses, always white, were of crepe de chine, but most of them were developed in cottons, voile, which is most favored, cotton crepe and some coarser homespun as the cottons typifying more nearly the crudeness of the peasant weaves.

It is the Russian type that prevails with smocked round neckline, topped sometimes by a standing band, raglan inset sleeves that fall to the wrist and bloused tucked-in finish.

The decoration is rich, for not only are the metallic threads gold and silver, embroidery, drawnwork and crochet used on the silk models, but on the cottons as well, with striking results.

The colors are treated in the same fashion as the metallic, with which they are frequently mixed. Cotton is used throughout in the colored decoration, it is said. Green, blue, red, yellow, orange and blue are a few of the shades used in quite deep tones, but not so deep as to lose any brightness.

The use of tiny French knots, clustered so as to make a portion of solid handwork, is another way in which both the metallic and the colored morzerized threads are employed. Small openwork circles, with work like delicate rose windows, should also be mentioned.

Bracelets Come Back.

An interesting fact which has come into being with the introduction of very wide sleeves, is the wearing of bracelets or flat bead bands to hold some of the width in at the wrist. The bands are about an inch wide, showing interesting designs of the beads in gay colors. Jade, diamond or onyx bracelets appear with sleeveless evening toilets, the narrow bracelets confining at the wrist filmy scarfs, which are wound about the arms instead of sleeves.

Spring Dress Goods.

Brushed mohair and chiffon alpaca are among the novelties in dress goods that will likely come into favor this spring. Furry silk is also spoken of.

Rings in Wood.

While all the trees of the temperate region and many of those from the tropics have growth rings, in not all cases are the contrasts in density and color great enough to show prominently in the finished material, says the American Forestry Magazine. Common examples are basswood, aspen, paper birch, tulip wood, holly, tupelo, buckeye, yellow cedars, and certain of the pines, firs and spruces.

Eagles Dislike Airplanes.

Eagles are very jealous of the airplane's rivalry to their age-long monarchy of the air. One pilot, recently flying down over Scotland toward England, suddenly saw an eagle make a ferocious swoop at him. It dashed right into the whirling propeller and broke one of the blades, forcing the pilot to make an awkward landing in an unsuitable country. Another eagle, after wheeling around a monoplane, evidently seeking for a vulnerable spot, flew down directly at the pilot in his cockpit. Luckily he had a pistol close at hand, and drove away the bird with a succession of shots.

Johnnie, a Columbus young ten, had only four candles on his last birthday cake, but he is already well versed in legal procedure. Being in need of having one of his teeth extracted he was taken to the office of a dentist. When perched in the chair he decided that he did not wish to part company with his ailing tooth and could not be persuaded to open his mouth. With consummate skill the doctor distracted his attention and made him gape with wonder at a fabricated tale. In went the forceps and out came the tooth before Johnnie realized it. The boy did not say a word until he started to leave the office, when he turned on the surprised doctor and said seriously: "Blame you, doctor, I have a good mind to prosecute you for this!"—Indianapolis News.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Keep Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Beautiful

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is a very popular, because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

What the Consumer Buys is Service

WHAT you buy from the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is service. This service may be expressed in mileage from gasoline or reduction of frictional wear from a lubricant or a good clear flame from kerosene. Every product made by this Company is designed to render a specific, definite service.

This service to be constant and dependable must be based—first upon highest technical knowledge and second upon permanency of organization. There can be no lasting service in any manufactured article unless there be stamina in the organization that makes it.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has a long and honorable record in producing petroleum products of the highest quality.

This is because its organization is essentially scientific; because through a period of years it has built up a personnel of experts. These men know what the public demands from petroleum and they know how to create products which will supply this need.

Each product conforms to a standard, set to yield maximum service. The series of petroleum products made by this Company round out a cycle of service which supplies every need of the community.

As a specific example, take candles. One might think that in these days of gas and electricity, the humble candle had been discarded, but it has not. Twenty-two million pounds of candles are consumed yearly in the United States, of which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) last year produced 7,649,000 pounds.

Thus, through the long list of products made by this Company, the needs of small groups of people throughout 11 Middle Western States are recognized and cared for with the same forethought and efficiency, as are the wholesale requirements of motorists and manufacturers. This too, is service.

TEXAN'S INCOME IS $66 A MINUTE

Colonel Humphreys Gives John D. Run for His Money.

SUCCESS COMES IN A YEAR

The Colonel, Who Is Now the Largest Oil Producer in the Mexia Field, Has Accomplished or Developed His Enormous Income Within the Short Space of Twelve Months—Is Producing at the Rate of 22,000,000 Barrels of Crude Oil Yearly.

Col. A. E. Humphreys of Mexia, Tex., promises to give John D. Rockefeller a "run for his money." The colonel, a year ago needing money to develop his first well, now is getting an income of $36,000,000 yearly and hasn't reached his limit.

The Humphreys interests in the Mexia wells today are producing nearly four times the crude oil daily that is being produced by the entire state of Pennsylvania.

The United States geological survey gave Pennsylvania's production for the month as 550,000 barrels, or a total of 7,000,000 barrels for 1921.

According to Colonel Humphreys, the oil actually run to storage and the tank car shipments from his company for the 24 hours ending at seven o'clock one morning recently amounted to 60,700 barrels, a rate of more than 22,000,000 barrels yearly.

This month the Humphreys companies will produce in the neighborhood of 2,000,000 barrels of crude. The potential production today is greatly in excess of the amount of oil actually moved.

Income $100,000 a Day.

"Within sixty days the company's production," said Colonel Humphreys, "will be 100,000 barrels daily, and within four months it should be above 150,000 barrels. The oil actually moved from our wells for every day of the new year has been more than 50,000 barrels, with several inside producing wells 'pinched in.'"

The income for the Humphreys interests today is at a rate of approximately $100,000 every 24 hours, more than $3,000,000 every 30 days, or more than $36,000,000 yearly.

To realize more fully just what tremendous income this is, just imagine that for each hour of the night and day you were receiving $4,000, which is more than $66 every minute. One scarcely could blame the colonel for taking a few weeks off for a trip to Cuba, the Panama canal and a fishing trip on the coast of Florida.

He has accomplished or developed all this income within the short space of twelve months. A year ago the colonel was bending his energy and that of his then small organization to obtain leases covering the structure on which he now is getting this large production. His work was so well done that today, as the structure is being defined by the bit of the drill, he owns more than 80 per cent of the producing area of the Mexia field.

What the German "Flapper" Should Wear

This "black and white" creation is what the mentors of German fashion say is to be the smart costume for the "flapper" this summer. The costume is of cheviot. Evidently fashion creators of Germany do not agree with the French in advocating the return of long skirts.

From the business side of the producing end of the oil industry the important thing is that of knowing in advance just what you may expect in the way of price for the crude produced. This Colonel Humphreys has fixed to the extent of 33,000,000 barrels, which he sold to the Standard and Sinclair interests at a fixed price of $1.50 a barrel. That will amount to almost $50,000,000 at the present rate of production.

In addition to that 33,000,000 barrels, the colonel has contracted to deliver to the Pure Oil company a maximum of 20,000 barrels daily, which gives an additional outlet for more than 7,000,000 barrels of crude this year. And it's all at a price not less than $1.50 a barrel.

Preparations are under way to care for this oil. The Prairie Oil & Gas company, the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing agency and the Humphreys Pure Oil Pipe Line company have under construction tankage to store more than 15,000,000 barrels of crude. The Pure Oil company is shipping by tank car to the Gulf coast an average daily of 15,000 barrels. There it is loaded in tankers, shipped to Marcus Hook, Pa., and put in storage.

THREE CHILDREN ARE ASPHYXIATED BY GAS AT HOUSTON, TEXAS

(By United Press.)

Houston, Texas, April 20.—Three children were found dead in bed here today from gas, police reports said.

The victims were William, Elizabeth and Louis Mathias, all under nine years of age. Police said they found a hole in the back screen where the murderers gained entrance to the house. Cracks and door of the room where the tots slept had been stopped with paper.

The children's grandfather said he found the gas burners turned on. The mother, 29 years old, was said to have left home here last Friday. Relatives said they did not know where she was.

TWO MEN SHOT TO DEATH IN BOOTLEGGER AND GANGSTER FEUD

(By United Press.)

New Orleans, April 20.—Frankie Russell, prize fighter, and Michael Walsh, were shot to death while in an automobile in a down-town district here today. Police arrested Philip Gehlbach and Arthur V. Mason on a charge of murder. Two women, Ethel Reynolds and Juanita Stevens, were held as material witnesses.

Officers said the shooting was the aftermath of a feud between bootleggers and gangsters.

Boy Bank Messenger Throws $121,000 Off The Brooklyn Bridge

(By United Press.)

New York, April 20.—In compliance to threats by boy companions, to steal a few hundred thousand dollars and go to Arizona to reform the west, Robert Byrns, 15, bank messenger, is alleged to have admitted to police that he threw $121,000 off the Brooklyn bridge.

TEXAS HOCH BAD STUFF

Lye, Cockroaches and Rodents Enter Into Composition of Moonshine.

Lye, fusel oil and wood alcohol are not the only poisonous substances in bootleg whisky, according to Deputy Sheriff Frank Hampe. Hampe, Harris county deputy, who claims the Texas still-capturing championship, is considered the local bootleg authority. "Not only do fusel oil and lye exist in poison moonshine whisky, but frequently cockroaches, mice and wood insects go into the deadly concoction," Hampe said. "Barrels used for fermenting mash are left uncovered," according to Hampe. "This allows the rodents and insects to fall in and die. Moonshiners make no efforts to take the dead animals and bugs out." A dead pig was found in a barrel of mash destroyed on one of his raids, Hampe asserted.

SPRING HATS IN THE BIG SHOPS

New York Milliners Now Making Appeal to Women to Buy Gay Headgear.

NEITHER SMALL NOR LARGE

Mode Keeps to Decided Middle Distance, Making Style Very Becoming to Average Face; Worn Straight Over Eyes.

If you want to see a fresh promise of spring and all the clothes that season brings with it, then walk on Fifth avenue and look at the bright new hats in the windows, advises a fashion writer in the New York Times. They at least are all ready and waiting for warmer days to come; and, in fact, they are even begging prettily to be worn right now. Many of them are so happily constructed that their materials seem to say: "Here is something more suitable for this time of year than the hat you have on." Now, you know, that is the most fatal sort of temptation. For who does not secretly long for a new hat at this season of the year?

The next most inspirational thing to do is to watch the models as they try on these brilliant new creations and see just exactly how they should be worn. For it is the posing of a hat, after all, that gives it its true style; without its proper and destined angle it amounts to nothing; one must not only have courage and coin enough to buy new things in headgear, but one must then understand how to wear them effectively if the best appearance in the world is to be the outcome.

Almost Obscure the Eyes.
The new hats set straight over the eyes, but they manage almost to obscure the eyes nevertheless. At one time they contented themselves with obliterating from sight the right eye, but there is nothing of that partiality shown now. The newer hats push down over both eyes, regardless of whether they are right or left, and to the discretion of the wearer is left the decision of whether she shall be allowed to see her way clearly before her or not.

After they have attended to this little duty, which is a cast-iron ruling of the season, then the hats or turbans or toques or whatever they may be, go forth upon various ways of their own. Really they seem to be allowed the greatest amount of latitude about the shapes in which they shall appear.

They turn away from the face, many of them. It is a sharp, sure turning, but it does not stop at that. Having achieved the upward spread that it is sure to have, it then spreads on to the sides—down, or out, or drooping at the back. In some way or other the brim of the most modern of hats creates a sweep that is conspicuously appropriate.

The hats are neither small nor large, but most of them, just now, keep to a decided middle distance, making them vastly becoming to the average face. When they have any tendency to smallness, then their trimming in some Ribbon, in bows and loops and ends, is one of the favored trimmings for the spring, and it certainly is pleasant to see this being used to so great an extent. Women always find ribbons becoming. They can be twisted and turned and puffed in so many fascinating ways that the hat with ribbon trimming inevitably becomes a flattering thing to wear. Then there is this new craze for moire, which brings with it a moire ribbon to be used on hats. One hat among the newer ones has a brim made entirely of this sort of ribbon, carelessly puffed into the crown to form a softly rolling brim. Over the left ear the brim disappears almost entirely and there two-wired pointed ends of the ribbon stick straight out into the air. The softly folded crown is then made in velvet and the hat is complete.

Another ribbon-trimmed hat shows a large and rolling brim, and is rather broader in proportion to most of the hats now seen. It is made of a lightish brown straw, and then it has a wide taffeta peach-colored ribbon drawn tightly over the facing of the brim toward the front, where at the brim's peak it is tied into a stiff, upward standing bow. It is a most unusual sort of hat and a very interesting one, though it is so decidedly new in character that one must have temerity to wear it as a pattern for the rest of the world to follow.

Use of Grosgrain Ribbon.
Grosgrain ribbon is used to make whole, shaped brim turbans. It has so much body that almost anything can be done with it and many of the newer hats will be found to have their starting point in grosgrain, with a little straw to help them out. Some of these hats succeed in looking like miniature airplanes, so winglike are the arrangements of ribbon that float away at one side or the other, or sometimes from both sides, of the closely fitting crown.

Ribbon that is narrow and plaited and formed into various sorts of rosettes is another favorite type of trimming, and, like the grosgrain brims just described, these succeed in making the hat more or less, once they start out to trim it. A yellow hat of straw with quite a Chinese shape to it, pointing up over the eyes, has a series of black plaited rosettes arranged in regular succession around its brim.

Then satin ribbon is used in loops upon loops, drooping down at one side from hats that are stiff and unrelenting in all other directions. It is interesting to see these little, quite borderlike turbans suddenly take it into their heads to show all that squashy ribbon on one side, and, besides giving to the hat a jaunty quality to become the face, the ribbon carries out the design most gracefully.

Repeating the idea from many of the spring frocks, ribbon is again formed into points and semi-circles to trim the rounded brims of some of the hats. For instance, round the upward turning and round brim of a little red hat there was a row of red ribbon points peeping from behind the brim's edge. This made the hat, for there was no other form of trimming to be seen, and, while the ribbon was exactly the same tone as the straw of the hat, it had a decidedly decorative quality about it and gave the smartest sort of a look to the little novelty.

Other Styles of Hats.
A hat made of black satin had black satin ribbon drawn over its crown into two stiff bows, which jutted out at the right side. And another hat of the same foundation material had a stiff bow of black ribbon set across the back, so that its sweep showed from the front as an outline for that portion of the silhouette.

Reads are having a great opportunity as far as the newer spring hats are concerned. There is nothing obvious or at all passe about the way in which they are handled, but the rule seems to be that, if originality comes into the game at all, beads and dangles and spangles are quite the neatest thing to use. For instance, most of the beads used are large and ornamental and clear as crystal, whether they are in colors or in pure white. There are loops of them over the ears or across the front of the hat or across the back, and often these loops hang down and away from the hat, so that they create the impression of chains about the neck rather than about the hat.

way draws out the line and gives the silhouette of the hat a broader, more expensive appearance. There seems to be none of those ultra-tight little affairs which were popular for so long. They have something added always to give them more form and shape than those which hugged the head so tightly.

The Matter of Trimmings.
It is in the matter of trimmings, perhaps, where the new hats excel and show their freshness. There is not much trimming, mind you—nothing resembling overcrowding—but what is there is so perfectly arranged and composed with the hat and its shape that it leaves nothing to be desired. While the trimming is in every way conspicuous, it is so rather because of its rarity and individualism than because of its overabundant quantity.

Public Economy Motto of Republican Administration

Operating Expenses of Government Reduced Nearly One Half by Republican Congress Working in Harmony With Executive Department

U. S. REPRESENTATIVE MARTIN B. MADDEN (ILLINOIS), CHAIRMAN HOUSE COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS

The estimates submitted by President Wilson for the conduct of the Government for the fiscal year 1921 amounted to $6,150,000,000, and the appropriations made under these estimates by a Republican Congress amounted to $4,789,000,000, showing an approximate saving in appropriations for that year of $1,400,000,000.

The estimates submitted by President Wilson for the fiscal year 1922 were $5,600,000,000, and the appropriations made under these estimates by a Republican Congress were reduced to $4,065,000,000, showing an approximate saving of $1,600,000,000.

The estimates for the fiscal year 1923 submitted by President Harding amounted to $3,853,000,000, and the appropriations, when completed, will probably be $3,500,000,000, or $353,000,000 less than the estimates.

The people of the United States should understand that for many years to come it will not be possible to run the Government for less than $3,500,000,000 per annum. This seems like a very large sum, but when it is realized that we have three fixed charges, consisting of interest on the public debt, sinking fund, and maintenance of the Veterans Bureau, which were created by the war and amount to approximately $2,000,000,000 per annum, it will be seen that the other expenses of the Government have been reduced by the Republican administration to $1,500,000,000.

The annual cost of the Government before the war was $1,250,000,000. Thus it will be seen that the present cost, aside from the fixed charges referred to, is but $250,000,000 in excess of pre-war cost, and at least $150,000,000 of this is accounted for by the normal increase in the business of the postal service, leaving but $100,000,000 of expense for ordinary purposes in excess of pre-war costs.

Any one who has followed the conduct of the Government since Mr. Harding's induction into the presidency must marvel at the rapidity with which the cost of government has been reduced. It is the constant aim of the administrative and legislative branches of the government, all in control of the Republican Party, to administer the affairs of the Government on a strictly business basis, expending not a single dollar for any purpose not essential to the Nation's needs. The one thing on which all are agreed is rigid economy in Government expenditure, and nothing can more forcibly portray the story of accomplishment achieved in this direction than the statement that costs have been reduced to the extent above indicated.

One billion, five hundred and seventeen million have been expended on the care of the wounded and sick soldiers of the World War up to February 1st, last, indicating that nothing has been left undone to provide for the care and comfort of the men who gave themselves to the country in its hour of need.

The country is to be congratulated on having Mr. Harding in the presidency. The problems handed down to him from the war complicated though they are, have been solved in the interest of the people. He has had the vision to see, the patriotism to do, and the courage and ability to achieve. His devotion to the Nation's needs has been the admiration of all who have watched him. He has been zealous, painstaking, patriotic, untiring and unselfish, and he has had and will have the hearty co-operation of the Congress in his efforts to put the country on a stable basis. Nineteen hundred and twenty-three will find America the only country in the world living within its income. The people have reason to rejoice at this accomplishment of their President and their Congress.

Birds Guard Our Trees.
We can spray orchards and shade trees with poisonous insecticides, but we would stand against the impossible task of spraying all the trees in all the woods, says the American Forestry Magazine. We must perforce depend on the natural enemies of insects to protect our forests. Fortunately, birds and other foes of insects, wherever their numbers are sufficient, act as effective forest guardians.

Liver Trouble Leads To Serious Ills

Blood Filter of the Body is Source of Infection

Biliousness is a sure sign of liver trouble—and any derangement of the liver is likely to lead to serious if not fatal results. Torpid liver means "bile poison" in the blood—a dangerous condition. If you have pains under the left shoulder blade, coated tongue, fickle appetite, pale, muddy complexion, or attacks of headache, your liver is probably affected. Read this strong endorsement from Mr. J. W. Strawhecker, 1608 Hunter St., Harrisburg, Pa.: "I think I can truthfully say that Dr. A. W. Chase's K.L. Pills saved my life. I suffered from bilious attacks and was so far gone nothing would help me, and any treatment I tried just made me worse. I had no control over my kidneys and my liver was so bad that my skin was yellow. I felt sure I was getting diabetes. I read in a little booklet of Dr. A. W. Chase's K.L. Pills and sent for some, and this is the remedy that saved my life. Today I am a good healthy man, bowels regular, kidneys and liver in good condition, and have a good color and splendid appetite."

Dr. A. W. Chase's remedies can be obtained at any first class drug store. To be sure of getting the genuine, see that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., are on each box. This trade mark is your protection against imitation and substitutes.—Advertisement 9

BREAKS up FEVER

A chiropractor would rather get a fever case than anything else. Why? Because it is a common thing for fevers to break up after one or two adjustments have been given. Fever is excessive heat brought about by certain subluxations; as soon as the subluxations are adjusted and Nature can work normally again, the fever disappears. See your chiropractor. SOUTH 6th STREET PAVING ASSURED

Mass Meeting of Property Owners Decides to Pave Street With Exception of 18 Foot Strip

LAUREL TO MAPLE FULL WIDTH
Macadam to be Used in Center Strip, and Cars Will be Parked in That Section

The mass meeting of South Sixth street property owners held at the council chambers Wednesday evening brought out a large representation. The meeting went on record, unanimously, as favoring paving all of South Sixth street from a point below Laurel to Willow street, except an 18 foot strip in the center.

The property owners on the half block remaining unpaved between Laurel and Maple street announced that they were willing to pave the entire street.

The citizens committee appointed last November reported on their interview with C. M. Babcock, highway commissioner, last December and again in April. At both times they endeavored to get the highway department to pay for the 18 foot strip in the center inasmuch as South Sixth street is a part of State Trunk Highway No. 27. Mr. Babcock went into the matter thoroughly with the committee and informed them that because of the limitation of money that could be spent by him for hard-surface construction, that it was impossible to do this. Finally a plan was worked out whereby the city could pave the side-strips and the 1 foot center filled with macadam material from the rest of the street and that part maintained for parking purposes and occasional passing of vehicles by the highway department.

Mr. Babcock also stated that it was the intention of the highway department to carry the hard-surface paving construction to Brainerd as fast as permitted by available funds and that when South Sixth street was reached the paving would be continued down the 18 foot center strip.

At the meeting members of the council and the city engineer showed that even in order to pave the side of the street it would probably be necessary for a part of the property owners to agree to pay cash upon the completion of the work.

Mayor F. E. Little presided at the meeting of property owners and Judge Walter F. Wieland presented the report of the citizens committee. On this citizens committee are Mayor F. E. Little chairman; County Commissioner Edward Crust, Alderman H. F. Michael, City Engineer R. T. Campbell, S. R. Adair, Judge Walter F. Wieland and George D. LaBar.

WORLD WAR VETS MEETING

Was Well Attended and Much Business Transacted—Smoker Was Given

The World War Veterans Gunard Erickson Post No. 10 held a very enthusiastic and important meeting at their club rooms over the New Park theatre Wednesday evening. A large crowd was present.

Reports on committees were given and there was much discussion on Memorial Day and the Fiftieth Anniversary celebration when the ex-service men will take over the 4th of July. It was decided that there should be a general meeting of all ex-service men in the city and vicinity in the near future to further plan on this event.

The Veterans have bought a flag which will soon be hung up in the club rooms and will be used in parades and other occasions. Heretofore the boys have had to borrow a flag from the G. A. R., but now they are proud to have their own.

The club has taken over a block of tickets for "Star Dust" to be shown at the New Park theatre Tuesday evening and members should buy tickets from the club.

During the meeting "Commodillas" were passed around and a smoker was held.

"SOCIAL HYGIENE" TO BE TOPIC

Miss Margaret Sheridan of the Minnesota State Board of Health, will give a talk at the Chamber of Commerce, April 20th at 8 o'clock, on the subject of "Social Hygiene." The talk will be illustrated by means of posters and an opportunity will be given for questions and discussions. All adults are invited and especially the fathers and mothers of the community. Come prepare to present your problems and to frankly discuss them. This is not a day and age when "ignorance is bliss" but an age when parents particularly, must face squarely the issue and be prepared to follow it up with sound advice, possible when based only upon scientific knowledge.

COMING TO THE "BAT" TONIGHT AT PARK

The advance sale of "The Bat" has been good, the response from out of town, especially Staples, being very encouraging. This is the first road show Brainerd has had in the past eight months and the management of the New Park is working energetically to have a good house tonight.

There are still a number of good seats left. Theatre goers are expected from Staples, Little Falls, Aitkin, Pillager, Crosby, Ironton, Pine River, Pequot, Motley. One order was received from Rochester from a traveling man who will be in Brainerd tonight. The company will arrive at 2:10 from the south.

There are eighteen people in the company.

HIGH SCHOOL OPERETTA

And Cantata—Reservations May Be Made On and After 9 A. M. Saturday

Reservations for the school musical entertainment to be given at the New Park theatre on Monday evening, may be made on and after nine o'clock, Saturday morning at the box office of the theater. Numbers will be given out to those wishing to make reservations, in order to prevent crowding in line, and no one person will be allowed to reserve more than five seats at one time. Some confusion and dissatisfaction has resulted in the past because of the practice of bunching student's tickets with some party near the front of the line and, in fairness to all, this restriction has become necessary.

STAGE ATHLETIC CARNIVAL FRIDAY

Brainerd Council of the Knights of Columbus Sponsors One at Club House, 817 Front Street

FIVE FAST BOXING EXHIBITIONS

Program Starts at 8:30 P. M. Sharp 12th District of Knights Boxing Athletics

The Brainerd Council of the Knights of Columbus will stage an athletic carnival at 8:30 p. m. sharp Friday, April 21. The club has been working on the program the past two months and promises lovers of clean sport a fast and exciting card.

The cream of Brainerd amateurs has been pitted against the most likely candidates from Crosby and Ironton in five fast boxing exhibitions. Tickets have been placed at $1, with ringside at $1.50. A large attendance of range men is expected who are anxious to see how their stars acquit themselves well.

League Baseball

"It is more than likely spring and summer will witness league ball," said E. G. Hraz of Staples, District Deputy of the Knights of Columbus, upon his return home from Brainerd where he attended the district meeting of the Knights of Columbus which was held here. The meeting was largely attended, a number of members of Staples council being in attendance. The purpose of the meeting was to promote a more active interest in an extensive athletic program for the coming year.

The 12th district of the Knights of Columbus is made up of councils located at Bemidji, Brainerd, Little Falls and Staples and a plan is on foot to organize a baseball league between the members of these different councils. A regular schedule of games will be drafted and each club is to put up a sufficiently large forfeit to warrant finishing the season. The Staples council it is reported, like Brainerd, has a wealth of talent ready for a try-out and tentative steps have already been taken in the organization of the Staples team.

The officers of the different councils are encouraging the proposition in every way possible as they realize aside from the sport afforded, that a baseball team is one of the town's best advertising mediums.

At the Brainerd district meeting held recently a five round boxing exhibition between Eddie Imgrund of Brainerd and Clarence Mullally of Staples was the big number. It was a whirlwind affair from start to finish. While Mullally has been boxing but a short time, the fans present declared him to be a cool headed, two-handed boxer with a wallop in either hand.

QUEEN OF SHEBA William Fox Production

"Queen of Sheba" Proves Gigantic Love Spectacle

"Queen of Sheba" a William Fox super-special directed by J. Gordon Edwards, came to the Lyceum theatre yesterday. It created a profound impression upon the first day audiences, and bids fair to prove the most talked-of photodrama of the season.

The pagentry attending the arrival of the Queen of Sheba at the court of King Solomon, which has held its place for centuries in song and story as supremely magnificent, is visualized in the picture drama in a manner completely satisfying to all.

There is scene after scene of great beauty and magnificence in "Queen of Sheba"—the marriage festival at the court of King Armud, the arrival at Solomon's court, the day of races and games, including the chariot race between the Queen of Sheba and the Princess Vashti; the arrival of David, ten by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, will be presented at the New Park theatre tonight.

This is an event in the theatre. If you doubt it just remember that "The Bat" has been playing for more than a year in New York (and it is still there).

played for one solid year in Chicago and has been the outstanding success of all dramatic plays in both cities.

"The Bat" has been variously described by critics. Some have referred to it as a "dramatic smash." It is. Others have called it "the play of a century." That is not exaggeration. Its record speaks for it.

Without resorting to suprelatives, however, "The Bat" may be described as a thrilling dramatic play in which the suspense is sustained from curtain to curtain and running through which there is one of the most delightfully funny characters ever introduced on the stage. It is 100 per cent entertainment and its best advertisement is what those who have seen it, have to say about it.

"Steelheart" at New Park

William Duncan was badly cut in leaping through a window while making scenes for "Steelheart," which will be shown at the New Park Friday only. In one of the early scenes of the production Duncan faces three burly gamblers. The action takes place in British Columbia at a time when men took the law in their own hands, and life was made up of many hard knocks.

which will be shown at the New Park next Saturday and Sunday are laid in Monte Carlo and the picturesque Rock of Monaco, which is separated from it by the sapphire waves of the Bay of Genoa. One of the most striking scenes is where an American Ambassador makes his "call of state" upon the Prince of Monaco, an independent monarch whose few square miles of rocky land is really the most productive of all Europe. His principality has existed since the middle ages, when the family of the Grimaldi luckily espoused the winning side in the wars between the Guephs and Ghibillines, and landed safely on this rocky promontory.

There is a barren glory until 1858, when M. Blanc, the master gambler, who had left Baden by request, made a contract acquiring a lease of a few rocky acres on which to establish the now famous gaming Casino. By this contract the Prince of Monaco received one-half of the income, and in addition the Casino company provided the police, army and also the fire department—which is seen in action in one episode of "Foolish Wives."

Duncan fights bravely, but is soon overpowered. One of the men knocks over the lamp, leaving the room in darkness. Then he fires a shot at Duncan. This arouses Marie, one of Quade's favorite women, and she rushes into the room with a lamp. The light shows Duncan an avenue of escape through a window. He knocks the lamp over the girl's hand and makes a leap, plunging through the window, smashing the glass.

Are You TIRED of Your HUSBAND?

Does he seem less attentive than he used to be? Is some other man, who apparently is able to give you more time and attention arousing your interest? When your husband comes home at night tired out do you think he is unreasonable because he wants to stay at home while you want to go out? Have you forgotten that if he seems less attractive than he used to be it is because his struggles for you have made him older, quieter, more serious?

If any of these things are true then see "FOOLISH WIVES" at the New Park Theatre next Saturday and Sunday.

It is a motion picture—one of the most costly ever produced—but it is more than a picture. It is a sermon. It instructs while it entertains. It will amuse and thrill you. Perhaps it will do you good.

In it the wife lets herself be persuaded that her husband does not appreciate her. One of the wildest, cleverest scoundrels in all Europe is bent upon her ruin. He almost succeeds. But in the end she realizes that after all it is her own husband she really loves and she comes to know that he loves her and is still the devoted lover of their honeymoon days.

Mae Tinee, the foremost critic of America, says in the Chicago Tribune of February 12th, "Universal comes across, and comes across BIG—'FOOLISH WIVES,' so long advertised as a wonder picture proves to be that thing."
